1. Several freight cars, each loaded with one large steam boiler, arrived at Arad from the Ganz Works at Budapest. Five or six were unloaded by the 7 November Cooperative, and all of them were taken to the local power station.
2. Five hundred tons of scythes from Austria and Hungary were unloaded at Arad. They were packed in boxes that bore a colored stamp with the coat of arms of the former royal house of Rumania. The scythes were addressed to the Cooperatives Organization in Bucharest and were distributed to various towns and villages. The invoices were made out in dollars with the note "Payment in advance".
